#5. Chakra Balancing Sessions* (30 - 60min)

Ayurveda and the functioning of Chakras go hand-in-hand. Each chakra is associated with a nerve plexus and an endocrine gland- governed by certain elements (Pancha Maha Bhuta) Once you know which dosha is governing predominantly and is out of whack by having done an Ayurvedic Assessment, it is easy to determine how to bring optimal flow through the chakras to rebalance and bring clarity.

Rebalancing the chakras is allowing for heightened flow of life force without any obstructions. Obstructions are felt in the Physical body through ailments, pain, mentally through drain, emotionally through onset and spiritually through a lack of connection.

how does it make you feel?

Imagine the flow of traffic with only green lights...
how does THAT make you feel? Thats the difference!

Nutritional recommendations and/ certain Practices are designed to align, remove blockages and balance the body's energy centres, enhancing overall harmony, vitality and clarity.
